The Immaculate Conception

Fourth Sunday of Advent

21st December 2014

Dear friends,

on this my golden jubilee weekend I am struck forcefully by the response of the psalm used on the 4th Sunday of Advent - I will sing forever of your love, O Lord.

As I reflect upon half a century of priestly ministry I am filled with immense gratitude to Almighty God for more blessings than I can remember. I am also overwhelmed by the affirmation, affection and support that I have received from so many of you both here in Epping and throughout the diocese, particularly the parishes where I have previously served. I am not usually lost for words but on this occasion I find it very difficult to express my gratitude adequately. I am struck by another phrase that occurs in today's scripture, just three words - the obedience of faith. The obedience of faith challenges every disciple of Jesus to seek the Father's will just as our Lord himself did. As we stand on the threshold of Christmas, let us go forward together as a faithful community seeking to do whatever God asks of us. Let us celebrate the birth of his beloved Son with gratitude and joy and let us sing forever of his love. God grant a blessed Christmas to us all.

God bless you always
Fr James

Proclaim'15: New National Initiative In 2015 To Support Parish Evangelisation

'Proclaim '15: BUILDING MISSIONARY PARISHES' is the name of a new national Bishops' initiative being launched in 2015 to support the development of parish evangelisation. It is inspired by Pope Francis' writings and has five parts which include: the provision of free parish small group materials; the organisation of a National Catholic Evangelisation Conference in Birmingham on 11 July 2015 for 850 evangelisation representatives from across England and Wales; an invitation to parishes to host a parish Prayer Vigil on the night of 11 July 2015 with free prayer materials provided; the invitation to dioceses, deaneries and parishes to have their own Proclaim '15 event in autumn 2015; the publication of new evangelisation resources as a fruit of the National Conference to equip local evangelisers. Please do get involved in what is a significant new step in service of the proclamation of the Gospel in our area. More information will be available in our newsletter / newspaper / website over the coming months.
