The Immaculate Conception Epping

Sixth Sunday of Easter

25th May 2014

Dear friends,

last year a few months into his pontificate Pope Francis issued a powerful message to the whole Church entitled The Joy of the Gospel. He reminds us that the message of Jesus is a treasure which we are not meant to keep to ourselves but to communicate to a spiritually starved world with conviction and enthusiasm. In many ways laymen and women are better equipped to do this than the clergy. The laity through their places of work and recreation as well as the neighbourhoods in which they live have access to numerous people who have never had any contact with the clergy. Indeed clergy, if they are considered at all, are viewed with suspicion like politicians as professionals paid to plug the party line. Non believers are often intrigued to know why ordinary folk like themselves pray and go to Church. If they ask you just tell them what your faith means to you. If they share some hurt or trouble, tell them that you will keep them in your prayers. Do not be embarrassed to use simple phrases like God bless you or thank God. Small seeds will often produce rich fruit. Today's reading from St Peter says it all: "have your answer ready for people who ask you for the hope you all have." We witness to Jesus not in our own strength but in the power of the Holy Spirit who guides us to the truth.

God bless you all
Fr James
