The Immaculate Conception Epping

The Ascension of the Lord

1st June 2014

Dear Friends,

Today we keep the Solemn Feast of the Ascension, which in turn leads on to Pentecost, the great feast of the Holy Spirit. Jesus ascended to heaven to return to the Father. The mission he accomplished on earth is now entrusted to his followers.

Jesus is still truly present to his people through his word and through his sacraments, particularly the Eucharist. His command to us is to 'make disciples of all nations' and we are to do so not by our own resources but through the grace and power of the Holy Spirit. I strongly recommend this brief prayer to the Holy Spirit to be said each day during this week up to Pentecost:

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

Melt me, mould me, fill me, use me.

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me.

I appeal especially to all our young people who were confirmed last autumn to renew the commitment which they made on that occasion, and not to allow peer group pressure to deter them from active involvement in the life of the Church.

I am taking a few days off this week and Deacon Duncan will have charge of all parish concerns whilst I am away.

God bless you always

Fr James
