The Immaculate Conception

Twenty Third Sunday of the Year

7th September 2014

Dear friends,

to pray is to practise the presence of God. Although we are not always conscious of it God is with us at all times and in every place. St Paul rightly says: in him we live and move and have our being. We pray as individuals but we also pray as a community and in today's gospel we are told that whenever two or three gather in Jesus' name he is there with them. The great act of communal prayer is the Sunday Eucharist and to absent oneself deliberately from it means to be starved of that spiritual nourishment that is vital to us. Family prayer is also of prime importance. Grace before and after a meal and bedtime prayer with children are obvious opportunities for such prayer but there are other occasions also. The saying that the family who prays together stays together has a lot of truth in it.

This weekend we welcome back Fr Patrick Shanahan who has supplied at Epping many times before. Fr Patrick is still very much involved in the wonderful charity Street Child Africa. I hope to be back next weekend after my break in the Lake District.

God bless you always
Father James
