Feast of the Epiphany

Sunday 5th January 2014

Dear friends,

our celebration of the Epiphany brings to a conclusion all our Christmas observances. Epiphany is a Greek word and it means manifestation. The new born Saviour is not only King of the Jews but he is revealed to all peoples who are represented by the wise men who came from afar. Those eastern pilgrims are called wise since they were genuine seekers of the one true God: as scripture says: the beginning of wisdom is the fear of the Lord. We are told that as the wise men offered their gifts they went down on their knees to worship the child. Their example is one we would do well to follow as we enter a new year. As we return to work and resume our normal routine we need to renew to our Lord our commitment to him. What gifts do I possess that I can profitably use in his service? What is my commitment to him in terms of personal prayer and communal worship? Christ is not simply for Christmas. Jesus, as scripture says, is of yesterday, today, the same and forever. For us gold is in short supply and frankincense and myrrh are not readily available in Tesco. Our personal gifts are far less exotic but none the less valuable for that. We are called upon to use them with generosity and joy for the greater glory of God and for the common good.

God bless you always
