Trinity Sunday

15th June 2014

Dear friends,

The feast of the Most Blessed Trinity serves as the great Amen or the concluding chord at the end of Eastertime and Pentecost. The mystery of the Trinity is at the heart of the Christian faith distinguishing Christians from Jews and Moslems. Like them we worship our one true God but we acknowledge in Him a threefold function: God creates, redeems and sanctifies and in so doing reveals himself to us as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. An essential part of Catholic body language is the Sign of the Cross. When we bless ourselves we express our faith not in a theological abstraction but in a lived experience of which love is the essence. The one true God, revealed as Father, Son and Holy Spirit is our tremendous lover who asks of us not only the assent of the mind but also the surrender of our heart.

Plans are now well in hand for the episcopal ordination of our new bishop Fr Alan Williams which will take place at Brentwood Cathedral on 1st July. Cardinal Vincent Nichols, Archbishop of Westminster will preside and about twenty other bishops are expected. On that occasion our two parish representatives will be Mrs Melanie Hollinshead, Chairperson of our parish council and Mr Stan Holder O.B.E. a former parish council chairman. The bishop elect, who is 63 and a member of the Marist Order, comes to us from Walsingham where he has been director of the National Shrine for nine years. He will live in a cottage at Abbotswick, Diocesan House of Prayer near Brentwood. Please pray for him as he prepares for his high office as our chief pastor.

God bless you always

Father James
