The Immaculate Conception

Thirtieth Sunday of the Year

26th October 2014

Dear friends,

the essence of the gospel message preached by our Lord Jesus is the love of God and love of one's neighbour. It is a simple message yet extremely difficult to put into practice properly. The greatest obstacle to its observance is the ingrained selfishness of human nature. True love always entails sacrifice and Jesus taught this too, not only in words but also by example. Greater love has no-one than to lay down his life for a friend. The cross is the supreme symbol of God's love for us. Despite the selfishness that so often militates against sacrificial love there are so many examples of such love in action. Whenever a spouse cares for a partner suffering from Alzheimers: or a parent tirelessly tends to an autistic child: or whenever doctors and nurses expose themselves to infection in the fight against Ebola. Then, and in so many other instances we see sacrificial love powerfully operating.

This weekend we welcome Fr Ted Wildsmith of the Missionaries of Africa (the White Fathers) to preach an appeal. Missionaries, priests, sisters and lay co operators are yet another example of those prepared to sacrifice themselves for others in some of the most deprived areas of the world. Please pray for them and be generous in supporting them.

God bless you always
