The Presentation of the Lord:

Sunday 2nd February 2014

Dear friends

today we keep the feast of the Presentation of the Lord or Candlemas as it is sometimes called. The prayers and readings are on page 300 of the Mass books. In this celebration Jesus is proclaimed as the light to the gentiles and the glory of Israel. Christ is our light and he illumines our path through life. We are all encouraged at this time of year as national light increases noticeably but far more important is the increase of spiritual light within us as we strive to follow in the footsteps of our Lord. Two elderly people feature prominently in the account of Jesus' presentation in the temple. The first is the prophet Simeon and the other the widow Anna. Both come across to us as people of faith and people of vision. Even now every parish has its Simeons and Annas, our senior citizens whose prayerful lives and fidelity in coming to Mass makes a rich contribution to the life of the community. As physical strength diminishes, spiritual strength ought to grow and the worship of all our elderly relatives and friends rises quietly to the throne of God to the enrichment of us all.

My trip to Las Palmas was a disappointment in terms of weather, little sunshine and lots of rain: nevertheless I return refreshed and I am very grateful to Deacon Duncan for holding the fort in my absence.

God bless you always
Fr James
