The Immaculate Conception

Seventeenth Sunday of the Year

27th July 2014

Dear Friends,

The news on the international scene at the moment is absolutely dire: the shooting down of the Malaysian plane, the tit-for-tat bombing in Israel and Gaza and the perils faced by Christians in Iraq. All this confronts us and challenges us to ask 'why?' Many throw up their hands in despair, but despair can never be a believer's response. We are called to be people of hope.

When Jesus preached his parables about the Kingdom, he was encouraging us to look beyond the ways of the world. He is pointing us in a different direction. The Kingdom of God, with its treasures of love, peace and joy, is above and beyond the power struggles of this present world, but these treasures are to be sought within our own hearts and minds. Jesus calls us to be different: to go against the flow and, in our own thoughts, words and actions, we are to sow small seeds of faith, hope and love, which, in God's good time, will produce their fruit.

In this country, our bishops have dedicated today as a Day for Life, celebrating the dignity of life and calling upon young people in particular to protect and cherish life from conception to natural death. It would be easy to settle for a weary cynicism and to ask what difference an one person can make, but when tempted to think like that we need to remember the small seeds growing slowly but surely.

God bless you always

DECORATION OF CHURCH INTERIOR:

We shall be decorating the interior of the church (excluding inside the cupboards in the sacristy) during the two weeks commencing 4th August. As the church will not be open during this period, please note the following changes to the normal arrangements, including Mass:

- Mass on Saturday 9th & Sunday 10th August and maybe also on Saturday 16th and Sunday 17th August will be in the CHURCH HALL.
- Weekday Mass for two weeks from 4th August will be in the Presbytery and will NOT be preceded by Morning Prayer.
- The Blessed Sacrament, during the period of decoration, will be reserved in Fr James' Chapel in the presbytery.
- Adoration after morning Mass is discontinued as is the usual practice during August.
- Confessions will be heard in the Presbytery, upon request, during this period.

We will need to seek the help of parishioners:

- To move the Mass Books and Hymn books into the Church Hall after the 11am Mass on 3rd August and back into the Church when the re-decoration is complete.
- To put out tables and about 150 chairs in the Hall after 11am Mass on 3rd August and to stack them away when we return to having Mass in the Church after re-decoration.
- We will need to arrange for the Choir Loft and Library to be left clear for re-decoration.

Please let Deacon Duncan know if you can help with any of these tasks.

DAILY EXPOSITION OF THE BLESSED SACRAMENT: has now ceased until after the 9am Mass on Monday 1st September.

HIROSHIMA SERVICE: You are invited to an inter-denominational service of light and peace in commemoration and remembrance of the first atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima, to be held on Wednesday 6th August 8pm at Our Lady and St Joseph church, Mill Lane, Stock ESSEX CM4 9RG. Bishop Emeritus Thomas McMahon will be presiding. A candle will be lit at Stock which came from Hiroshima, and the candle from Essex CCND (Christian Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament) will be lit in Hiroshima. For further information please contact Davina Bolt 01277 265234 or email davina@dioceseofbrentwood.org."

NEW PARISHIONERS: Please make yourselves known to Father James or Deacon Duncan, so we may welcome and inform you about our parish life.
